

D48 Screen

Located near Giffnock, an outer suburban town of the City of Glasgow, our D48 advertising space screen is a prime opportunity for impactful static artwork. Reaching over 150,000 motorists weekly, the A272 acts as one of the main link roads to get into the Centre of Glasgow. Strategically positioned opposite the entrance to the well-used Williamwood Train Station, this location captures the attention of commuters as they exit the station.
